

Required for U14, U16 Championships and Far West Camps Only

Members of the Far West Traveling Team, competitors, coaches, officials and other individuals who officially represent the Far West at an event are required to abide by the USSA Code of Conduct and the Far West policy concerning illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco. Far West supports USSA's commitment to the SafeSport program, to help raise awareness about misconduct. Any Far West athlete who has questions or concerns about possible unacceptable behavior, physical contact or abuse can call the USOC SafeSport hotline, at 855-665-5473.

I, _____, am a current member of USSA and FWS as a coach, and hold a current referee certification. My most recent coaches education credits were earned on: _____
My most recent referee update was held on: _____, and I am a level _____ referee.

Additionally, coaches are:

- to refrain from the use or possession of alcohol and tobacco in vehicles used for team purposes;
- not to consume alcoholic beverages anywhere in the presence of a team member who is not of age;
- to refrain from the use of inappropriate language, or conversation topics around athletes;
- to refrain from the use of tobacco of any form;
- to refrain from the use of firearms of any kind;
- required to attend all team meetings and team training unless excused by the team head coach;
- required to lodge with the team and to reside in the room to which they are assigned
- required to observe any additional rules established by the team head coach, chaperones or the Far West Skiing Alpine Competition Committee.

Violation of these rules may result in

- ineligibility for future traveling team coach participation.
- Reporting of the violations to program director, and USSA.

AGREEMENT: I understand that, by participating in this project, I am not being employed by Far West Skiing, the United States Ski and Snowboard Association, or any of the affiliates of USSA. I have read and understand the Far West Coaching Travel rules and agree to abide by them when I am at an event or traveling to or from the event as a member of a Far West Traveling Team Coaching Staff.
